DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Species II: Fig. 8B, readable on claims 1-3, 5, 7, 37 and 40-44, in Paper No. 16 is acknowledged.

Claims 4, 6, 8-36, 38-39, and 45-60 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 16. The Examiner does agree with the Applicant that claim 1 is generic to the remaining species.

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2-3, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 2 is indefinite because it is unclear what a "stream" is. The definition of the term "stream" implies motion, such as a flow of water in a channel or tears down the face. If the Applicant were using the term "stream" in describing how the coating is applied, then the claim would be an improper product by process claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 5, 7, and 42-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Burkoth et al. (WO 98/23228) as cited in Applicant's IDS. Burkoth et al. discloses a generally tubular prosthetic (11) comprising: a continuous stream of a therapeutic substance (p 7, lines 8-23) and a polymer (p 13, lines 3-14), deposited on the surface (22), in a straight line with a width smaller than the surface (FIG. 2A). The stream need not extend the entire length of the tubular prosthetic (p 8, lines 9-11) and therefore starts at a first selected position on the surface and ends at a second selected position on the surface.

Claims 1, 37, and 40-41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ragheb et al. (5,873,904) as cited in Applicant's IDS. Ragheb et al. discloses a generally tubular prosthetic comprising struts. The struts have a coating that repeats in a preselected geometrical pattern (FIG. 8).
